At the heart of Saint-Vivien-de-médoc village with Robin.

Start

At the heart of Saint-Vivien-de-Médoc village with Robin.

From the Tourism Office, head towards the church and circle the building until the apse, the semicircular roof opposite the church bell.

1 How many windows are there on the apse of the church ?

Take the Docteur Jacques Noel Road to your right. Stop when the number 23 is reached.

2 This building was once used by a ferrant marshal. What animals head can be found on the facade ?

.....

Continue down the road and stop at the deadlock Gauvin. The building you can see here is called « La Salle Des Fetes De la Commune », where many events are planned.

3 Observe the building.
What do you see inscribed on the wall ?

Continue until you reach 25 Cours Pierre Lassalle. The building in front of you had, at once, a particulare purpose.

4 What role did the building in the photo bellow play ?

Now go around the fire and rescue center and through the stadium René Veluzan. Walk along the basketball court to reach the small door allowing you to leave the stadium. Take the road again, going on your right via Avenue Lazare Carnot and stop at the gymnasium.

5 How high is the church bell ?

- 6m       38m       59m

Now go back to the Square of 11th of November and observe the Vierge erected in 1876

6 In the Square, there is a stature of the Vierge, which is the missing part ?

In this square on every Wednesday morning, on of the biggest markets dating 100 is held. In addition, in summer, the artists' market takes place here on Sundays Morning. He is nicknamed the "petit Montmartre."

7 Which of these blazons is that of Saint-Vivien-de-médoc :

In this, rather abstract, blazon we can find references to the beach, to pine trees and to the estuary. The Red Losange indicated the location of the commune in the Médoc.
